ALANA Achievement Award

For A 2020 Graduating Senior

Canisius College would like to acknowledge the accomplishments of an African American, Latinx American, Asian American, or Native American (ALANA) graduating senior who exemplifies the Jesuit value of Magis through academic excellence, exceptional leadership, character, dedication and service to Canisius and the community-at-large. We are seeking nominations for the Canisius ALANA Achievement Award, which is presented annually at the Spring Honors Convocation along with a college diploma frame valued at one-hundred dollars.

Nominate a deserving individual (a student can also self-nominate) in writing or online. Pick up a nomination form from the ALANA Student Center or any of the committee members listed below or search the web for "Canisius ALANA Achievement Award" to find the online form.

Online link: https://www.canisius.edu/content/alana-achievement-award-nomination-form-2019

Please submit nomination(s) by Thursday, February 27, 2020

ALANA Achievement Award Committee:

1. Dr. Allyson D. Backstrom, Director/George E. Schreiner Pre-Medical Center
2. Gwen T. Baggs Ito, Marketing & Communication
3. Gustavo Dos Santos '20, Graduate Student/Student Engagement Coordinator/Student Life
4. Rev. Patrick J. Lynch, S.J. (Chair), Jesuit Assoc for Mission & Identity, Professor Emeritus/Religious Studies & Theology
5. Morgan Morris '21, Undergraduate Student Association/USA Diversity Chair
6. Fatima L. Rodriguez-Johnson, MS'98, Assoc Dean for Diversity & Inclusion/COPE
7. Dr. Craig D. Rogers, Assoc Professor/Economics & Finance

The ALANA Award concept was originally created in 2008 by the Canisius College Afro American Society. It was implemented by the college starting in 2011-2012.