MIGRATIONS AND BORDERS WEEK

FRIDAY 10.19- OPENING EVENT
STAGED READING
Staged reading of Mojada, A Medea in Los Angeles, written by Luis Alfaro, performed by Raíces Theater Company. Marie Maday Theatre, 2 p.m.

SUNDAY 10.21- MIGRANT MASS
Campus Ministry sponsors a Migrant Mass. Christ the King Chapel, 8:30 p.m.

MONDAY 10.22- OPENING RECEPTION
Exhibits on display to include immersive games, visual stage of items they take with them, images of the border, media portraying migrations and borders. Art Exhibit: Patrick Foran: Other Internments Reception: Andrew L. Bouwhuis Library, 5-7 p.m.

TUESDAY 10.23- ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION
Roundtable talk about borders and migrations from local speakers. Complimentary food from the West Side Bazaar will be available before the discussion, items and crafts from the West Side Bazaar immigrant community will be available for purchase following the discussion. Regis, 6-7 p.m.

WEDNESDAY 10.24- FILM SCREENINGS
ArtsCanisiusArtes presents screenings of "Running Fence" and "Through the Repellent Fence." Regis, 1-3:30 p.m.

FRIDAY 10.26- ROUNDTABLE + RECEPTION
Roundtable discussion with artists and participants of Niagara Street Mural Project, Michele Agosto and Patrick Foran. Regis, 3-5 p.m. Concluding reception post-discussion with Patrick Foran. Andrew L. Bouwhuis Library, 6-7 p.m.

For more information, please visit canisius.edu/border.
Sponsored by Department of Modern Languages Literatures and Cultures, Digital Humanities Group, Andrew L. Bouwhuis Library, Office of Mission and Identity, Office of Campus Ministry, Department of Sociology, Programs of International Relations and Latin American Studies, Department of Fine Arts, Sigma Delta Pi (Spanish Honors Society), Latin American Students and Friends. Contact Dr. Richard Reitsma with questions or concerns- reitsmar@canisius.edu or call (716) 888-2408.