Canisius College set a fundraising record in 2017-18, with $10.231 million in commitments.

That is the most the private, Catholic college in Buffalo has ever raised, not counting years in which they were in a capital campaign.

The funding includes:

- More than $7.2 million added to the college's endowment, which totaled $137 million as of the May 31 close of the fiscal year. The largest gifts this year included $2 million from philanthropist and former Canisius trustee Patrick P. Lee and $1 million from alumnus, former trustee and attorney Anthony Colucci Jr.
- $1.22 million to the Canisius Annual Fund, the primary source for immediate institutional aid.
- More than $1.7 million to academic programs, athletics, campus ministry and other areas.
