Canisius College would like to acknowledge the accomplishments of an African American, Latino/a American, Asian American, or Native American (ALANA) graduating senior who exemplifies the Jesuit value of Magis through academic excellence, exceptional leadership, character, dedication and service to Canisius and the community-at-large. We are seeking nominations for the Canisius ALANA Achievement Award, which is presented annually at the Spring Honors Convocation.

A nomination form appears on the reverse side. Students are permitted to nominate themselves, using this form. Please take a moment to nominate a deserving graduating senior for this award. Identify and explain the reasons which make this student deserving of the award, including specific examples. You are encouraged to attach additional information to this form (no more than one typed page).

Please submit nomination(s) by Thursday, February 28, 2019

The ALANA Award concept was originally created by the Canisius College Afro-American Society several years ago.
Please submit your nomination to Old Main/Rm103 listed at the bottom of this form. Only one nominee per form.
