

Borders & Migrations Week

Fall 2019

Free and Open to the Public

Community Cultural Capital - Libroficante Style
With Tony Diaz, El Libroficante (The Book Smuggler)
12:00 - 2:00 pm

September
26
Library

October
21
Regis

Migration 101: An introduction to terms, laws, and practices 12:00 - 1:30 pm
Immigration Simulation and Reflection 4:00 - 5:00 pm
Aves Sin Fronteras / Birds without Borders 6:00 - 7:30 pm

Cultivating Hope at the US/Mexico Border with Joanna Williams of the Kino Border Initiative
6:00 - 7:30 pm

October
22
Regis

October
23
Regis

Continuing to Live Out Our Jesuit Values: A Roundtable
Discussion on Canisius' Community Response to Borders and Migrations. 12:00 - 1:30 pm
Global Connections: Investigating the Relationships between Art, Science, and Society with Alberto Rey 7:00 - 8:30 pm

From the English Department Contemporary Writer's Series
Call Me American Author Abdi Nor Iftin
7:00 pm

October
24
Montante

November
7
Grupp

From the Department of Religious Studies
Chicago Católico with Deborah Kanter 7:00 pm

Any Questions? Contact Dr. Reitsma at reitsmar@canisius.edu