

BORDERS & MIGRATIONS
INITIATIVE
CANISIUS COLLEGE

BORDERS & MIGRATIONS WEEK SPRING 2020

Free and Open to the Public

What We Carry - Stories from Women Immigrants in Buffalo

Presented by the International Institute of Buffalo

(Tickets available online; free for students)

Tues. March

24

5:30 - 7:30pm

Montante

Wed. March

25

6:30 - 8:30pm

Science Hall Commons

Screening of "Unsettled," a Film about LGBTQ Migrants & Refugees from around the World

Followed by Q&A with two subjects of the film

Segmentation of Labor Market and Refugees

With Dr. Secil Ertorer & Dr. Anita Butera

Department of Sociology, Criminal Justice and Environmental Studies

Thurs. March

26

12:00 - 1:00pm

Regis

Thurs. March

26

7:00 - 8:30pm

Regis

Panel on LGBTQ Migration

With Canisius alum & LGBTQ activist TJ Rogers, two subjects from the film "Unsettled," & other guests in the field

Mon. March

30

7:30 - 8:30pm

Grupp

Women's Migrations in the Ancient Greek Mediterranean

With Dr. Rebecca Kennedy, Department of Classics

Tue. March

31

5:30 - 7:00pm

Science Hall Commons

Borders and Migrations in the Late Roman Empire & Early Medieval Period (300-800 AD)

With Scholars Dr. Davide Salvo, Dr. Giulia Vollono, & Nathaniel Durant

Wed. April

1

6:30 - 8:30pm

Regis

Screening of the feature film "The Garden Left Behind"

Followed by Q&A with director Flavio Alves

Thurs. April

2

7:00 - 8:30pm

Regis

Stories from LGBTQ & DACA activists, Advocating for Transgender Rights & Representation

Any Questions? Contact Dr. Reitsma at reitsmar@canisius.edu

Presented by The Departments of Modern Languages, International Relations, Sociology & Criminal Justice, Classics & ICMS, embrace Western New York, The Canisius Borders & Migrations Initiative, The Institute for Global Engagement, Office of Mission & Identity, Sigma Delta Pi, & Diversity.

- Follow us at <https://blogs.canisius.edu/border/> -