

BORDERS & MIGRATIONS
INITIATIVE
CANISIUS COLLEGE

Canisius College Borders & Migrations Initiative invites you to an information session on Afghans and the Legal Challenges of Resettlement

Refugee? Asylum Seeker? Immigrant? Exile?

September 14th, 6-8pm,
Science Hall Commons

Kelsey Hatfield, Esq. is a alumna of Canisius College (2017) and UB School of Law (2020). She is a Staff Attorney at Journey's End Refugee Services, where she has worked since 2018. Her practice focuses on the representation of indigent clients in immigration proceedings, emphasizing asylum, the Violence Against Women Act, and family reunification.

Rachael Sparacino graduated from Canisius College in 2019 and is a part of the UB School of Law Class of 2022. She works as a Legal Assistant for Journey's End Refugee Services, a position she has held since 2020.

 Free and open to the public

 Event offered in a hybrid format

 In-person attendees must wear a mask that covers the nose and mouth at all times and maintain social distancing as indicated
