THE DREAM BEGINS: AGRIPPA HULL & TADEUSZ KOSCIUSZKO focuses on the friendship of these two Revolutionary War heroes who challenged the status quo of their time. Their friendship was profoundly influenced by American slavery. Agrippa Hull was a free Black man who served as an aide-de-camp to Tadeusz Kosciuszko, a Polish patriot and military trained Engineer, who joined the fight for America's Independence. These two heroes were instrumental in helping achieve America's victory against Britain.

The live performance will feature vignettes with two actors, and performances by the St. Martin DePorres Choir and the Chopin Singing Society, featuring soloist Joyce Carolyn and the African-American Cultural Center's Dance and Drum Company.

The Polish Arts Club presents programs on Polish and Polish American culture, history, and current events. Open to all who share such interests.
